MAIN ST. PIOCHE OPPOSITE LACOUR NEVADA

An account of the refusal of the Stage Company operating from Sunny Side to Ely to make connections with the line on this end, it has been decided by William Denton, manager of what is known as the Sunny Side route, to use only one horse from Baily Springs north. As it is it takes passengers four days of stage to make the trip from Ely to Pioche, where before with connections the trip was made in two, hence on this account no passenger traffic and the change becomes necessary. A double seated rig, however, with two horses will operate between here and Bristol to accomodate local traffic with accomodations to take two passengers from there north.

The offical withdrawal of S. A. Nuzmen Frank H. Case, of Las Vegas, Republican nominee for County clerk, has been received by the Central Committee here and accepted. This leaves the field open to Judge Orr of whom there is no better man on either ticket.

Dr. J. L. Hogan, of Los Angeles, expects to arrive here with his family in a few days where he has chosen to locate permanently.

The stage into Pioche is generally loaded down with pas. sengers and goes out empty, but Wednesday was the exception. It was loaded going out as well as coming in, for a number of residents left for Salt Lake to residents left for Salt Lake to spend their extra accumulations P.
